BRANCH MEETING - ZOOM
OCTOBER 9, 2021 – 11:00 AM

Happy Autumn! Need a little good news? This month may offer just that. This October, our AAUW Program will feature health writer Charlotte Libov, who wrote Fight Back: How to Beat the Coronavirus. Charlotte is the author of many other books in addition to having written articles for such publications as: Newsmax, WebMD, AARP Viva, and many more. She is a public speaker, and has been featured on NPR, CBS Radio, USA Today-Sky Radio, as well as others. This month, she will be sharing her knowledge of the coronavirus, which is based on research she has been involved in for some time. This should be a very timely discussion.

As usual, we will be meeting on the second Saturday of the month (October 9) for our Branch meeting. Our president, Paula Ocampo, will conduct our business meeting. Following that will be our speaker, Charlotte Libov, who will speak for 30-45 minutes followed by a 15-minute Question/Answer session. We will conduct the meeting on ZOOM, since the Board has determined that the risk is still too high for an in-person meeting.

The meeting will commence at 11 AM, however, as is our practice, we will start at 10:30 for those who want to socialize.

For more information about Charlotte Libov, please see the link below:
<https://www.linkedin.com/in/charlotte-libov-12a7196>

Respectfully submitted by:
Claire Koehler, AAUW VP Program
Ann Topjon, Program Committee Associate
Christine Heller, Program Committee Associate

HOW TO ZOOM

Should health requirements call for our returning to ZOOM meeting, here are some instructions. If you need help downloading ZOOM and logging in, please get with one of the ZOOM tutors who have volunteered to help.

On your computer, go to ZOOM.us and download a free copy. On your smart phone, download the ZOOM app. When you get an invitation to a meeting, click on the link provided and it will take to you the meeting.

If you are having Internet problems or don't have a computer, you can call this phone number listed on the ZOOM invitation under:

Dial by your location
+1 669 900 9128 US (San Jose)

and you will be able to attend like a conference call. You will need the meeting ID and passcode. There won't be a video, but you can hear, and you can be heard.

If you want to practice before a meeting, please contact a helper.

OCTOBER MISCELLANY

October is National Breast Cancer Awareness Month. Schedule those Mammograms! It is also National Cyber Security Awareness Month. Let's all be aware of scams, phishing and attempts to rob our identities. Never, EVER, give out information to callers regardless of how "legitimate" they sound. Always call back on a number you look up yourself, like the number on the back of your credit card, or the number on your invoices. Never call a number that the caller gives you to verify something. Better to err on the side of safety. Identity theft is quite costly to fix.

Life starts all over again when it gets crisp in the fall. – F. Scott Fitzgerald

I wish that every day was Saturday and every month was October. – Charmaine J. Forde

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

September branch meeting - We had our first meeting of the year on Zoom, opening with a remembrance of September 11, 2001, including quotes from President Biden and a moment of silence. Members voted to adopt both the 2021-22 budget and the proposed standing rules which were revised to reflect a change in dues by AAUW. Sharon Heck, 2020-2021 President was presented with engraved wooden bookends as thanks for her leadership and service. Claire Koehler, Program VP announced our speaker, Beverly Gray. She spoke on her book "Seduced by Mrs. Robinson: How the Graduate Became the Touchstone of a Generation". Beverly, having worked with the producers, had the inside track on everything from Mike Nichols to Dustin Hoffman, presented how the movie both reflected our culture at the time and changed it going forward. Expect more engaging programs to come at our branch meetings!

GWA-AAUW news - The October branch meeting will be held on zoom due to continued high Covid-19 case rate. Currently, the 14-day average for LA County still hovers at 2,000 cases. Let's be patient and give it another month to allow for improvement.

We have a wonderful history of volunteerism in our branch. However, in 2020 Covid-19 really caused us to cut back on our in-person activities. If you are missing that connection, we are implementing the Volunteer Sign Up which includes opportunities to volunteer and be more involved in branch activities. Get your name on the list of volunteers to read the branch minutes, help greet at in-person meetings, contribute your computer tech savvy, or assist branch officers and committees with various tasks. Hopefully, more involvement will enable you to take that step to serve on a committee or eventually hold office. Just open the email when the Volunteer Sign Up is distributed.

AAUW CA news - California Connection - I hope all of you are receiving your monthly e-newsletter from AAUW. It is distributed on the 8th of the month directly to your email address. Be sure to check it out if you haven't already. You don't want to miss the humor and information contained in it. Not receiving your California Connection? Check your spam folder. Or if you have Gmail, the Gmail filter may have put it into the wrong tab. Check the Social or Promotions tabs rather than the Primary tab. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me, Paula Ocampo at pocampo@aol.com.

The AAUW CA Fall Fund Event is coming. Don't miss the opportunity to meet the 2021-22 AAUW California Fellows and Grant recipients and learn about their backgrounds and studies. For complete information see the Fall Fund article in this newsletter by Dolores Seidman, AAUW Fund Vice President

AAUW news - AAUW seeks to promote inclusion and awareness for all members to create an equitable, sustainable, and inclusive membership reflective of today's world. You will be seeing upcoming activities and programs on DEI. Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI) are concepts that are often used interchangeably but mean quite different things. AAUW is encouraging us to inquire more in this area and has included DEI as an element of this year's Five Star Program. We are currently working to incorporate this focus in our branch activities and programs.

Paula Ocampo, GWA-AAUW Branch President

AAUW Mission Statement - To advance gender equity for women and girls through research, education, and advocacy

Presidents Theme - Embracing one another, we work together to carry out the AAUW Mission, we appreciate the gift of each other's companionship and encourage all members to participate and feel included and welcome.

AAUW FUND

In recent years, AAUW CA has sponsored three AAUW Fund Luncheons throughout the state, at which members were able to hear several the AAUW Fellows and Grant Recipients talk about their projects. Because of Covid restrictions, we now have “AAUW Events” on ZOOM and without traveling, we can attend one, two, or even three to hear from the 37 California recipients this year. The dates and times for this year’s events are:

Saturday, October 23- 10:00 AM

Saturday October 30- 10:00 AM

Sunday November 7- 1:00 PM

Recently, every member received an e-mail notice from AAUW-CA telling how to register for these events on-line.

If you no longer have access to that e-mail, simply go to aauw-ca.org/aauw-2021-fund-events/ you must register for each event separately. There is no charge, but members are encouraged to donate to AAUW Fund at this time. It is always inspirational to hear these recipients tell their stories.

Remember donations are tax deductible!

At our November 13 branch meeting, we will have one of these recipients, Yvonne Zhang, artist and film maker, as our guest speaker. Details in November newsletter.

Dolores Seidman,
AAUW Fund Vice President

THE DIGITAL YEARBOOKS ARE COMING!

Patricia Cuocco is in the process of converting the 2021/22 yearbook to digital. All websites and email addresses will be hyperlinked. The digital version of the yearbook will be updated with new members and changes, quarterly. Please send a “Digital Yearbook Request to patricia@fullerton.edu. This will ensure you receive the document and the quarterly revisions.

PUBLIC POLICY

CIVIL RIGHTS? MORE LIKE UNCIVIL WRONGS!

To say this has not been a particularly good time for Civil Rights would be a vast understatement. Two bedrock AAUW priorities are very much under attack. The first is a woman's right to make her own reproductive choices and the second is the very right to vote, itself. Our AAUW website is quite clear on our beliefs and priorities on both issues:

“AAUW trusts that every woman has the ability to make her own informed choices regarding her reproductive life within the dictates of her own moral and religious beliefs. Further, AAUW believes that these deeply personal decisions should be made without government interference. AAUW members have made the protection of reproductive rights a policy principle since 1977.”

“Because our democracy only works when everyone can fully participate. AAUW is committed to open and fair elections, nonpartisan voter education efforts that will promote equitable political participation and representation in appointed and elected office, and the expansion of voting rights.”

The recently enacted, completely draconian, Fetal Heartbeat Act in Texas was constructed to delay judicial review by “deputizing” citizens to act instead of government officials. These same citizens can then gain monetarily for being vigilantes and bounty hunters. Add to this the myriad of bill enacted in gerrymandered state houses throughout the nation which seek to curtail, rather than expand, voting rights and you have a concerted effort to deny access to constitutional rights to women and minorities.

It is not likely that the actual constitution will be amended to suppress or deny voting rights, but, since the Voting Rights Act of 1965 (which, BTW, passed the Senate by 98-0) was gutted, states have been free to pass laws which have the effect of making it harder for people, particularly poor people, and people of color, to vote. In Shelby County v. Holder, a 5-4 SCOTUS majority mothballed the law's Section 5, which required states with a history of racial discrimination in voting to get certification in advance, or “pre-clearance,” that any election change they wanted to make would not be discriminatory (Brennan Center for Justice).

It is also unlikely that many states with Progressive majorities will pass laws undermining the protections in Roe v. Wade, even if the Supreme Court overturns that precedent, which seems at least possible, now. This will result in “Abortion Tourism” or another way of saying that women of means will be able to exercise their rights and those less fortunate will be at the mercy of people who believe that their version of religion and morality must be the prevailing one. I don't know about you, but I am not seeing much difference between this point of view and the Taliban's.

When you curtail access to a civil liberty, you deny it. It really is that simple. If only those with means have access, then the civil right really does not exist. Urge your legislators to protect voting rights for all citizens and to ensure that women can always make their own decisions about their bodies.

Patricia Cuocco, Public Policy Chair

Dining For $$$$

October 21, 2021, California Grill - Whittier

Happy fall to everyone! Our first fundraiser of the 2021/2022 year is being hosted by California Grill. Nick Kiouftis, manager, was quick to respond to my request and very eager to help us start our fundraising efforts for the Myra Long Scholarship Fund. I have always been able to count on Nick to help in any way he can. With their many loyal customers in mind, you may have noticed California Grill's expansive and attractive patio area is now available to us for outdoor dining. Whether you choose an outdoor table or indoor area, you will undoubtedly enjoy the familiarity of many menu items while checking out some new ones.

We applaud California Grill for continuing to serve the community during the pandemic and hope you can join us to support them as well as to support our scholarship fund. Our fundraiser will be held on Thursday, October 21 from 8:00 AM - 8:00 PM. 20% of your bill will be donated to the Myra Long Scholarship Fund for both dine-in or take-out orders when you present our flyer. Flyers can be found near the end of this newsletter. We are looking forward to seeing you there!

THE SPOTLIGHT

Wishing you all treats and no tricks for the month of October.

We received a lovely acknowledgement from the family of Helen Boltinghouse for the donation in her name that the branch made to the Whittier Library Hodge Foundation. Susan Boltinghouse wrote: "Thank you so much for your kind words and donation to the HODGE foundation in my mother's honor. AAUW was important in her life as long as I can remember. I actually was able to tag along on some AAUW events when I was five years old. What a great way for my mother to introduce me to some great role models! Your organization scholarship work and more are so important."

Yvette Rawlinson, a member of GWA-AAUW since 1949 (WOW!), has been in the hospital at PIH and is now in transitional care there on the campus, where she expects to go home any day now. She has an indomitable spirit and a great sense of humor which have helped carry her through this illness. She would appreciate get well wishes in the form of cards only. Her address is: 6047 Alta Ave., Whittier 90601.

Joyce Paul and Carole Restovich spent a relaxing few days in Pismo Beach in August. They enjoyed the best fish and chips dinner this side of London while watching the waves roll in and the pelicans glide to their roosts. Joyce especially enjoyed time off from her busy days as president of her Rancho Cucamonga area AAUW.

Gen'nel Walters has moved to Oakmont a Senior Living Center across from the Quad. Her new address is: 13617 Whittier Boulevard Suite 240, Whittier, California 90605
Her cell phone number is (562) 822-3976.
There will be an estate sale and her house is listed for sale.

Barbara Gile is attending the (virtual by Zoom) International P.E.O. Convention in her home September 20-25, 2021.

In case she does not answer her phone, please leave a message.

Glad to have new member, Margo Reeg on board. Did you know that Margo is also president of the Whittier League of Women Voters? I also want to mention that we, once again, have a male AAUW member. Bob and Judith Henderson rejoined our branch. You may recognize Judith as a 2020-21 Las Distinguidas Award recipient. Bob spent many years on the Whittier City Council and did a few stints as Mayor.

SECTION INFORMATION

Because of the uncertainty surrounding containment measures for COVID-19, scheduling section meetings will be subject to change. We suggest that you keep in touch with your Section Chair for updated information.

MYSTERY MAVENS

Mystery Mavens does not meet in October. We will meet again on November 17, the third Wednesday. Please watch the November newsletter for further information.

WRITING FOR THE NEWSLETTER

I thought I would review a few of our writing conventions and I'm putting it here, in the middle of the SECTIONS (an unexpected place), in the hopes that you will see it.

- The first time it appears in any article, please use the member's whole name.
- To designate time, we use 9 AM or 6:30 PM, not 10:00 a.m. or 7PM.
- Names of books are italicized and underlined. For example, The Grapes of Wrath by John Steinbeck.
- ZOOM is ZOOM, not zoom or Zoom.
- Remember, if a quote ends a sentence, the ending period goes before the final quotation mark. For example: I have always believed that "forgiveness is easier to obtain than prior approval."
- Please, avoid contractions.
- Despite the Associated Press style sheet, we do not end sentences in prepositions, nor do we split infinitives. We write like the educated women (and men) that we are.
- Brevity is the soul of wit (per the Bard); it is also the soul of good writing.
- It is not always possible, but please minimize the use of the passive voice. For example: "The film was viewed by the members at the last meeting" is a passive construction. It is far crisper to write: "The members viewed the film at the last meeting."

Thank you!
Patricia Cuocco, Editor

INTERNATIONAL CONCERNS

Our International Concerns section is reading a book printed each year by the Foreign Policy Association titled Great Decisions. The book contains eight articles on a variety of topics, and we read one article each month. We will be ordering the books for 2022 very soon, so let Sharon Heck know immediately if you wish to order one.

Our meetings are on the third Thursday each month at 10 AM. On October 21 we will meet by ZOOM at 10 AM and I will be sending you the ZOOM invitation. Our topic for the October 21 meeting will be “The World Health Organization’s Response to Covid-19,” chapter 7 in the 2021 Great Decisions. If you do not have the book, you might be able to access some information on the Foreign Policy Association website. www.fpa.org/great_decisions

Fay Weber will be leading the discussion on October 21. Everyone reads the material ahead of time, and we have a lively discussion around the topic. If you have newspaper articles or materials, we are happy for you to share them. All are welcome to join us for International Concerns. If you are new to us, send me your email so you will be included on the ZOOM invitation.

FIRST FRIDAY

First Friday, October 1, 6-8 PM, will be at the home of Linda Pomeroy, 1620 N. Cedarcrest St., Brea. Bring guests, beverage of choice, and an appetizer to share.

It is expected that all members and their guests are fully vaccinated against Covid-19 AND are careful to mask in public places to reduce danger to other attendees.

MORNING BOOK

We will not meet this month. These are the books that we will read and discuss this year:

November 22: The Women in Black (Madeleine St. John)

January 24: Olive Kitteridge (Elizabeth Strout)

March 28: The Lost Gutenberg (Margaret Leslie Davis)

June 6: Hamnet (Maggie O'Farrell)

July 25: The Pull of the Stars (Emma Donoghue)

Happy reading!

MEMORIES

The October 27 meeting of Memories takes place at the home of Carole Restovich at 1:30 PM. All those who love to write are invited. Topic: "In Your Dreams!" Do you dream often? In color? Describe any repetitive dreams. Have your dreams changed over the years? How? Do your dreams influence you in any way? If this topic doesn't inspire you, perhaps writing about your childhood Halloween memories might. Or you may write on any topic that moves you now. We write to preserve family history, to stir the creative juices, to clarify our thinking, and sometimes to bring about a catharsis. Come share your written thoughts with an appreciative audience. Carole's home: 10413 Portada Dr., behind Whittwood, off Santa Gertrudes. Phone: 562-787-0727.

MODERN TRENDS

Modern Trends

October 28, we will meet to discuss The Midnight Library by Matt Haig. The discussion leader is Kristine Yeseta and the hostess Gwen Woirhaye. It will be at Gwen's house at 5810 Friends Ave., Whittier, CA 90601. Her number is 562-696-6405.

If you're not vaccinated, please stay on the ZOOM meeting. Those coming in person, please wear a mask, wash your hands and default to ZOOM should you feel ill. Looking forward to a great Fall/Spring session of Modern Trends! If you have any questions, call Kristine Yeseta at 562-696-0226. An email will go out with the ZOOM link beforehand.

November 18th will be Born a Crime, by Trevor Noah. The discussion leader is Georgine Sweeney.

January 27th will be The Light of Days by Judy Batalion. Myra Weiss will be the discussion leader.

February 23rd will be The Exiles by Christina Baker Kline. Janice Geiger is the discussion leader.

March 27th we will discuss The Miniaturist, by Jessie Burton. Gwen Woirhaye is the discussion leader.

April 28th will be The Huntress by Kate Quinn. The discussion leader is Gen'nel Walters.

May 26th we will discuss Deacon King Kong by James McBride.

June 27th will be The Paper Daughters of Chinatown by Heather Moore. The discussion leader will be Carol Anderson via ZOOM.

Questions? Call Georgine Sweeney at 562-631-6698.

La Cuisine

La Cuisine, the fine dining section, will resume October 30 with our long-postponed Jewish Dinner. Guests will be contacted by hostesses and given recipes. It is expected that ALL guests are fully vaccinated AND practice masking in public places.

Anyone who would like to join the group should contact the chair as listed below.
